

27th October 2013

West African Catering

Intel's Party

Dear Zarko / Rade

I herewith use this medium to get a THANK YOU across to your continuously effort to underline that WAC is the most reliable, and professional Caterer in Nigeria.

I can only speak about Nigeria, I never saw in my entire working life within the drilling industry, meanwhile 37 years any caterer like your company.

You are real the measurements for all Caterers on the Market, especially here in Nigeria.

You have underlined during the Intel's party that you will be able to deliver for more than 5000 guest an excellent service, you has contributed during the party a huge commitment within your entire team and therefore you became part of the success of the great avenue.

From the preparation to the time of delivery your entire team was on the spot.

Rade, an special thanks for you as person, your guidance, effort to get it right is and will be always highly appreciated, great asset for a great Company.

Part of the excellent reputation of WAC Catering, guys well done the sky is your limited.

I personally wish you continuously success in the future, and I can tell you that you will and cannot fail so long you keep the team together.

Once again, THANK YOU!!!

Kind Regards,

Joachim

